Washington, D. C.
December 3, 1920.

Estimated live stock receipts at seven markets: Cattle 12,200; calves 1,650; hogs 57,300; sheep 24,100. As regards price movements, the Chicago live stock markets got more nearly in line today than for some time past. Hogs lost 15¢ to 25¢; fat lambs 25¢ to 50¢. Cattle, with the exception of a few good steers, were reported steady to lower. Choice steers and fat sheep strong. Feeder lambs steady. December 3 top Chicago prices: Hogs $10.35; yearling steers $15.50; good beef steers $13.25; heifers $12; cows $10.25; feeder steers $10; westerns $10.75; veal calves $12; fat lambs $12.75; feeding lambs $11.25; ewes $5.50.

The fresh meat markets presented a rather mixed appearance. Beef was dull and barely steady at most consignment centers. Veal $1 to $2 lower. Choice 1¢ to $1 higher at New York. Fresh pork steady at New York; weak elsewhere. December 3 prices on good grade meats: Beef $17 to $19; veal $17 to $20; lamb $24 to $27; mutton $11 to $13; light pork loins $13 to $22; heavy loins $14 to $17.

Heavy selling of March wheat in Chicago futures market by elevator interests and by commission houses caused a sharp decline in prices but the market resisted the pressure and rallied to around yesterday's close as soon as selling stopped. Chicago March wheat unchanged at $1.65; May corn unchanged at 76-1/4¢. Minneapolis March wheat up 1-5/8¢ at $1.61-5/8; Kansas City 1/4¢ lower at $1.61-1/2; Winnipeg May up 1/2¢ at $1.77-1/4. Chicago December wheat closed $1.70-3/8; December corn 72-1/4¢.

Four of ten designated spot cotton markets unchanged. Norfolk, New Orleans and Montgomery each down 25 points at 15¢; 15-1/2¢ and 15¢, respectively. New York December futures down 50 points closing at 15.60¢.

Northern round white potatoes held at $1.40 to $1.63 per 100 lbs. f.o.b. Carlots in Chicago recovered slightly from Thursday's low level, closing $1.60 to $1.75, a net decline of 65 to 70¢ from Nov. 3 quotations of $2.30 to $2.40, when highest prices since opening of season prevailed. Jobbing prices in other markets 5 to 20¢ lower at $1.85 to $2.15 sacked. Shipments, 509 cars Dec. 2 compared with 556 cars Dec. 1.

Apple markets generally steady with price changes slight. Shipments 445 cars Dec. 2 compared with 494 cars Dec. 1.

DAILY MARKETGRAM
(U. S. Bureau of Markets)

Washington, D. C.
December 6, 1920.

Estimated live stock receipts at seven markets: Cattle 53,300; calves 5,500; hogs 102,300; sheep 71,700. Under very liberal receipts fat sheep and lambs at Chicago broke sharply, lambs losing 50¢ to $1; sheep 25¢ to 50¢. Feeders slow and weak. Hogs broke 10¢ to 25¢ per 100 lbs., a liberal run accelerating the downward movement. Light supplies forced cattle prices up. Native beef steers and butcher stock gained 25¢ to 50¢, but at the close, some grades were no better than steady. December 6 top Chicago prices: Hogs $10.30; yearling steers $15.75; good beef steers $13.25; heifers $12; cows $10.50; feeder steers $10; veal calves $11.50; fat lambs $12; feeding lambs $11.25; ewes $5.

A somewhat better tone was in evidence in the fresh meat markets. Receipts in general were moderate but the demand showed some improvement and the trend of prices was upward. Beef firm to slightly higher. Philadelphia reported asking prices for veal $2 to $4 higher; other markets steady. Lamb and mutton firm to higher. Pork loins quoted $2 higher at Philadelphia. December 6 prices on good grade meats: Beef $17 to $19; veal $18 to $23; lamb $24 to $28; mutton $11 to $16; light pork loins $20 to $23; heavy loins $16 to $18.

Continued strength in cash grain with increasing premiums in corn and hard winter wheat has influenced buying sentiment. Chicago March wheat gained 3-3/8¢ closing at $1.75-1/4 and May corn 2-1/2¢ at 79¢. Minneapolis March wheat up 9-1/4¢ at $1.72-1/8; Kansas City 9-1/2¢ at $1.71-1/2; Winnipeg May 9¢ at $1.89-1/4. Chicago December wheat closed at $1.79-1/2; December corn 76-3/4¢.

Norfolk spot cotton market up 63 points at 15.63¢; Savannah up 50 points at 16.50¢; Houston 50 points at 15.50¢. New York December futures up 30 points at 16.10¢.

Butter markets unsettled. Following decline of 6-1/2¢ past 3 days. New York advanced 1/2¢ but Chicago lost 1-3/4¢. Dealers operating very cautiously. Closing prices 92 score: New York 52¢; Chicago 48-1/4¢; Philadelphia 53¢; Boston 52¢.

Cheese prices took decided tumble at Wisconsin primary markets, all styles declining an average of 4¢. Prices on Plymouth, Wisconsin cheese exchange: Twins 19¢; Daisies 21¢; Double Daisies 20-3/8¢; Long-horns 22¢; Square Prints 23-1/4¢. Distributing markets have not felt effect of weakness at country points as yet and are generally unchanged.

Florida lettuce steady f.o.b. shipping points at $1.25 to $1.50 per 1-1/7 bushel hamper. Haulings continue light. Jobbing range mostly $2 to $2.50 per 1-1/2 bu. hamper. California Icebergs steady, $2.50 to $3 per crate; New York advanced strongly closing $5 to $6. Shipments 32 cars Dec. 3, compared with 49 cars Dec. 2.

Sacked yellow onions slow and steady shipping stations at $1 to $1.25 per 100 lbs. Jobbing range $1 to $1.50. Shipments 56 cars Dec. 4 compared with 53 cars Dec. 3; 36 cars Dec. 2.

Apple markets showed slight changes since Dec. 3. A 2-1/2 Baldwins steady at $4 to $4.25 f.o.b. western New York shipping points; Baldwins, Yorks and Rhode Island Greenings jobbing $4.50 to $5.50 per bbl. Greenings lower in Philadelphia at $3.75 to $4.50. Northwestern Extra Fancy boxed Winesaps unchanged f.o.b. $2.25. Jonathans steady at $2.75 to $3 New York; 25¢ lower in Kansas City at $3 to $3.25. Shipments 506 cars Dec. 4 compared with 480 cars Dec. 3.

DAILY MARKETGRAM
(U. S. Bureau of Markets)

Washington, D. C.
December 7, 1920.

Estimated live stock receipts at seven markets: Cattle 38,500; calves 6,200; hogs 124,500; sheep 57,900. Sharp declines in hogs and sheep featured the Chicago live stock market. Hogs lost 25¢ to 40¢ per 100 lbs., the closing top dropping to $9.85. Fat lambs again declined 50¢ to 75¢; fat sheep 25¢. Feeding lambs steady and sold on a parity with fat stock. Cattle generally strong, desirable grades of beef steers averaging 50¢ higher. Common kinds about steady. December 7 top Chicago prices: Hogs $9.90; yearling steers $15.75; good beef steers $13.50; heifers $12; cows $10.50; feeder steers $10; westerns $10.75; veal calves $11; fat and feeding lambs $11.25; fat ewes $5.

The fresh meat markets again presented a rather spotted appearance. Trade in most lines was quiet but in spite of that, beef and lamb were quoted $1 higher at New York and about steady elsewhere. Veal was dull and weak at most markets. Philadelphia reported a $2 decline on fresh pork loins. December 7 prices on good grade meats: Beef $17 to $20; veal $18 to $23; lamb $25 to $28; mutton $11 to $15; light pork loins $19 to $23; heavy loins $15 to $18.

A sharp break occurred in the grain markets Chicago March wheat closing 7-3/4¢ lower at $1.67-1/2; May corn 2-1/4¢ lower at 76-3/4¢. Minneapolis March wheat closed 7-5/8¢ lower at $1.64-1/2, Kansas City 8-3/4¢ lower at $1.52-3/4; Winnipeg May 8-1/4¢ lower at $1.81. Chicago December wheat closed at $1.70-1/4; December corn 73-3/4¢.

Norfolk spot cotton market down 1/8¢ at 15.25¢; Augusta 1/4¢ at 15.63¢. New York December futures lost 40 points closing at 15.70¢.

Butter markets quiet, but there seems to be more interest and slightly better feeling. All grades plentiful and tendency toward accumulation on undergrades. Storage butter very slow. Closing prices 92 score: New York, Philadelphia, Boston 52¢; Chicago 48-1/4¢.

Primary cheese markets about 2-1/2¢ lower in line with costs. Prices now range around 20-1/2¢ flats; 23¢ daisies; 22-1/2¢ double daisies; 24-1/2¢ longhorns. The effect of Monday's drop at country markets noticeable in distributing markets. New York and Chicago lower on some styles.

Northern sacked round white potatoes showed a wider range f.o.b. at $1.35 to $1.58 per 100 lbs. New York round whites dull and steady f.o.b. at $1.70 to $1.75. Carlots slow and weak in Chicago at $1.60 to $1.65. Jobbing range $1.75 to $2.15 in other middlewestern markets. Eastern bulk stock $2.10 to $2.20 in New York; sacked steady in Baltimore at $1.75 to $1.90; 5 to 10¢ lower in Pittsburgh at $2 to $2.10. Shipments 328 cars Dec. 6 compared with 535 cars Dec. 4.

Apples continue steady at shipping points. New York A-2-1/2 Baldwins, Yorks and Rhode Island Greenings steady in consuming markets mostly $4 to $5. Northwestern Extra Fancy Jonathans $2.75 to $3 per box in New York. British apple markets higher with good demand. American Baldwins reported Dec. 7 selling in London $9.53 to $10.40 per bbl.; Liverpool $7.86 to $9.53. Yorks in Glasgow $9.18 to $10.57. Winesaps at Southampton $8.34 to $10.05. Northwestern Jonathans in Liverpool $3.47 per box; in London $2.95 to $3.64. Winesaps in Glasgow $3.47 to $3.81. Shipments 359 cars Dec. 6 compared with 506 cars Dec. 4.
